

CSC STATISTICS

- Key Facts and Figures

QUICK FACTS

OUR PROFILE

In 2012-13, Correctional Service Canada's (CSC) expenditures totaled approximately $2.6 billion. (Source: Departmental Performance Report – 2012-13)

CSC has over 17,000 employees, including:

- 7,700 correctional officers
- 2,500 parole and program officers
- 720 nurses
- 270 psychologists

(Source: HR - Key Facts and Figures - 2014)

CSC manages and maintains:

- 43 institutions*
  - 11 Clustered Institutions
    - 2 maximum/medium/minimum security level units
    - 9 medium/minimum security level units
  - 6 maximum security institutions
  - 9 medium security institutions
  - 5 minimum security institutions
  - 12 multi-level security institutions
- 92 parole offices
- 16 Community Correctional Centres
- 200+ Community Residential Facilities

* As part of these 43 institutions, there are four healing lodges (two are minimum security, two are multi-level security) and six women's institutions (all multi-level security).

AVERAGE ANNUAL COST OF AN OFFENDER

It costs over $115,000 to maintain an offender in an institution, and over $35,000 to maintain an offender in the community.

(Source: Corrections and Conditional Release Statistical Overview – 2013 Annual Report)

OFFENDER PROFILE

On a typical day during 2013-14, CSC was responsible for about 23,000 offenders, over 15,000 offenders in federal custody (including temporary detainees) and over 7,700 offenders in the community.

(Source: Departmental Performance Report – 2013-14)

Of these offenders approximately:

- 20 per cent were serving sentences for homicide
- 14 per cent were sex offenders
- 25 per cent had a robbery conviction
- 20 per cent were serving sentences for drug offences
- 51 per cent had substance abuse issues
- 55 per cent had no high school diploma
- 11 per cent were associated with gangs and other criminal organizations

Of the over 15,000 offenders incarcerated:

- 23 per cent were serving life sentences
- 77 per cent were at various stages in fixed sentences
- 3 per cent were designated as dangerous offenders

(Source: Offender Management System as of April 14, 2013)

MEASURING CSC'S PERFORMANCE

Comparing the 2013-14 fiscal year with 2009-10, federal offenders were less likely to:

- commit serious security incidents while in custody (from 0.81 to 0.61)
- escape from custody (from 31 escapes to 13)
- incur new violent offences while on community supervision (from 3.0 to 2.2)

(Source: 2013-14 Performance Measurement Framework Year-End Results)

August 2014

Correctional Service
Canada

Service correctionnel
Canada

Canada